

SOUTHEASTERN Summer Theatre INSTITUTE

ABOUT SSTI

For sixteen incredible summers, the Southeastern Summer Theatre Institute has welcomed extraordinary high school theatre students from across the US to beautiful Hilton Head Island, South Carolina for a month-long professional theatre experience that shapes these young people as both performers and people. A staff member at SSTI is more than just an industry professional. You're a mentor, a teacher, and a valued member of a community that values integrity, fun, and passion.

Come see why SSTI Feels Like Home.

LEAD CARPENTER:

This individual will be responsible for working alongside the Tech Director/ATD in the oversight and construction of all scenic elements for the summer productions. This will also include load-in and load-out, as well as run crew duties during production. The candidate is expected to be fully comfortable with wood construction, MIG welding, and safe and responsible shop protocols and procedures.

May 24th-August 19th

$4675 contract, private bedroom housing, nightly dinners, travel, weekly gas stipend.

OPTIONAL RESIDENT LIFE BONUS PAY

Unlike previous summers at SSTI, this position will not be tasked with any Resident Assistant duties. However, non-RA staff members can elect to be a 'Standby RA' for an additional $75 per week. If selected, the Standby Resident Assistant team will be ready and willing to aide and participate when the primary team is down a member or enjoying a day off. Potential duties include:

- Driving a van to and from the theatre*
- Supervising a movie night or beach day
- Taking a student to urgent care or picking up groceries.

*All candidates must be 21+ with a pristine driving record, and comfortable driving a 12 or 15 passenger van.
